Dinner Talk

Adi and his family sat down for dinner. His dad asked, "How was your day today, kids?" Adi's younger brother talked excitedly and quickly about the new bike that his friend brought to school. Adi wanted to talk too but he didn't want to interrupt his brother. After a while, Mom reached across the table and touched Adi's hand. "Would you like to tell us about how your day went?" He then proudly talked about how pleased his teacher was about his artwork.
